CHINESE LAUNCH OFFENSIVE NEAR KIUKIANG

Japanese Land At Kutang And Are Subjected To Severe Attacks

SINKANG HEAVILY SHELLED

Kiukiang, July 24.
Chinese troops are launching a fierce offensive against a detachment of 70 Japanese who landed at Kutang, 25 kilometres south-east of Kiukiang, on the west shore of Poyang Lake.
The Japanese, sent from Hukow in 15 warships and 70 steam launches, landed yesterday morning under a smoke screen and heavy artillery bombardment. The Chinese put up stiff resistance during their landing, mowing down many of the Japanese with withering machine-gun fire before they could set foot on the shore. Those who landed have since been subjected to severe attacks by the Chinese.
With the arrival of reinforcements the Chinese offensive has been intensified and further Japanese landings have been frustrated.

SITUATION AT KIUKIANG STILL QUIET

Hankow, July 24.
Despite the prevailing anxiety over Kiukiang following the landing of two thousand Japanese troops at Kutang, a reliable foreign report stated this morning that the situation at Kiukiang remains quiet.
Chinese despatches state that severe fighting is going on in Kutang where, though the Chinese have not yet succeeded to drive the Japanese back to their ships, the latter are also unable to make much headway in their drive to Kiukiang.
It is expected that the Japanese will attempt to land more troops today.—(Reuters).

Japanese Use Gas Shells

Loyang, July 24.
Growing desperate after sustaining heavy losses, Japanese troops again allegedly resorted to the use of gas shells during an engagement with the Chinese at Tatsien, five kilometres southwest of Hsiahshien in south Shansi on July 23.
Many Chinese were poisoned. It is said that the Japanese have used gas shells on no less than twenty occasions in south Shansi recently.—(Central News).

JAPANESE CLAIMS

Shanghai, July 24.
Raiding Changsha aerodrome on Saturday, Japanese naval aircraft seriously damaged four medium-sized Chinese planes that were on the ground, according to a communique issued today.
A direct hit on the Canton-Hankow Railway bridge near Shikowu to the north of Yingtak caused a span to fall while the line is said to be cut at two points in the vicinity. A powder factory in Salehuen is said to have been "unlverised" in the course of the air raids.
Japanese military and naval spokesmen were unable to give official confirmation to foreign reports that Japanese troops have effected a land on the west bank of Poyang Lake near Kutang when questioned by foreign correspondents at this afternoon's press conference.
The spokesmen stated that they are expecting news from the Yangtse front in the very near future.—(Reuters).

Now Relaxed

SOVIET-MANCHUKUO BORDER TENSION

Tokyo, July 24.
The tensely of the situation on the Soviet-Manchukuo border is now relaxed and the atmosphere, which for several days remained most tense, has now become quiet once again, according to Japanese reports.
The latest report regarding the frontier situation declared that a notification has been received from the Soviet authorities stating that two messengers who were dispatched by the Japanese authorities on July 18 with a note requesting withdrawal of Soviet troops from the Changtufeng area will be sent back.
Evidently in consequence of the hint given to the press by responsible quarters on July 22 to soft pedal further developments of the incident, the press is playing down news from the border and predict that the return of the two messengers may be the prelude to an amicable settlement of the affair.—(Reuters).

Shantung Town Retaken

Chengchow, July 24.
Adding to their many successes recently, Chinese guerillas in west Shantung recaptured Tsaohsien in the southwest corner of the province yesterday.
Subjected to constant attacks by the Chinese, the Japanese garrison has been reduced to half. Unable to withstand further assaults, they abandoned the city and fled eastward.—(Central News).

A fresh frontier clash, in which two Manchukuoan soldiers were wounded, is reported from Harbinovsk. It is alleged two Manchukuo motorboats on the Ussuri River violated the Soviet frontier and landed a group of six soldiers on a Soviet Island.
The soldiers opened fire on a passing Soviet cutter.
During the ensuing clash two were wounded and all the Manchukuoans were captured by Russian Frontier Guards.—(Reuters).

Japanese Morale Lower Than Before

The morale of the Japanese troops in the present hostilities is much lower than that during the fighting in Manchuria after the Mukden Incident in 1931, according to General Ma Chan-shan, hero of the Nonni Bridge operations in 1932, who is now commanding Chinese troops in Suiyuan.
Over 2,000 Japanese troops, General Ma claimed, have been killed during recent fighting in south Suiyuan.

JAPANESE AIM TO RETAKE NAMOA ISLAND

Make Little Headway In Face Of Stiff Chinese Resistance

Swatow, July 24.
Stiff Chinese resistance has prevented the Japanese from making much headway in their counter-attack aiming at regaining Namoa Island.
The invaders who landed at Sumoa yesterday are subjected to fierce assaults by the Chinese, while those at Lungoa have been beaten back with 200 killed.
There are now more than 10 Japanese warships anchoring around Lu Oa Islet nearby. They opened desultory gunfire on the islet.
From 8 to 11 o'clock this morning, a Japanese naval plane, after circling over Lungoa for some time released three bombs demolishing over 10 houses.
A sum of $2,000 was received here today from overseas Chinese in Siam for the relief of the bombing victims here.—(Central News).

IRREGULARS IN JAPANESE EMPLOY MUTINY

Chengchow, July 24.
One thousand irregulars in Japanese employ have mutinied at Chengchow, about 36 kilometres south-east of Kaileng.
The irregulars were ordered to proceed to Kaileng as reinforcements.
It is learned that there are now only about 1,000 Japanese troops in Kaileng. Running short of men, the Japanese have recently recruited 1,000 Chinese able-bodied men.—(Central News).

EARLY GENERAL ELECTION?

London, July 24.
The possibility of an early General Election is indicated by Major Clement Attlee, Labour leader, speaking to Durham miners yesterday, when he said:

MR. HORE-BELISHA

Paris, July 24.
The British Minister for War, Mr. Hore-Belisha, who is at present in the French capital, declared to a representative of a French radio agency that his visit was of quite a private nature and that no official conversations had been arranged.
That, however, will not prevent the British Minister for War holding "unofficial" discussion with the French Premier and the Minister for War, M. Daladier on Sunday.—(Transocean).

Japanese Ambushed By Guerillas

Eighty Japanese were killed and two captured alive when a detachment of 140 Japanese in seven steam launches were attacked by Chinese guerillas in a river near Sungkiang, important station on the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway, on July 15, according to a belated report.
The Chinese guerillas operating at Sungkiang had received reports that the Japanese were being dispatched to Chowtangchen. They lay in ambush at Yachakiao and Sintangkiao, two bridges near Sungkiang.
When the Japanese launches came near, they emerged from their hiding and fired a volley at them. Four of the launches were sunk. Eighty Japanese were killed and two captured alive whilst twelve Japanese rifles were seized by the Chinese. The rest of the Japanese fled.
Chinese casualties numbered about ten killed and wounded.—(Central News).

PRESS ACCLAIMS VALUE OF SOVEREIGNS' TOUR

May Be Turning Point In Europe's Troubled Story

London, July 24.
The consolidating effect of Their Majesties' visit to Paris upon Anglo-French friendship is the theme of all editorials in yesterday's papers.
"It is universally agreed that the warmth of Their Majesties' reception in Paris transcended all expectation," says The Times. "There exists today an Anglo-French partnership which is something less than an alliance and psychologically something more. If it is used, as surely it will be, for the promotion of a just and pacific settlement of outstanding problems, it may in time become the nucleus of a much wider partnership of nations."

"WAR PROFITEERS"

First Lord On Ships In Spanish Waters

Owners of British ships bombed by the insurgents in Spanish waters were criticised by Mr. Duff Cooper, First Lord of the Admiralty, in a speech at Newton Abbot recently.

The First Lord said:—"From the very beginning of the war in Spain we have never varied from the principle that on the high seas we will give, and the Navy will see that we give, complete protection and safety to all British ships; but when they go inside Spanish harbours and Spanish territorial waters we can no more protect them, and we do not pretend to protect them. Any more than we intend to protect individuals who go into Spain for reasons of their own."

Nearly all the productions of war are horrible. Many of us—most of us probably—remember the horrors of the last War, and I think we shall all agree that there are few things more horrible that war produces than the war profiteer.

"We should all hesitate to take any violent action, if no other action would suffice, which might have unforeseen effects on the future of Europe and the whole world in order to assist a few war profiteers in the task of increasing their profits."

Mr. Duff Cooper added that in the House of Commons Mr. Lloyd George criticized the Government for not making sufficient preparation for war. Nobody should know better about preparations for war than Mr. Lloyd George, because when the last War broke out he had been in office for eight years, and practically no preparation whatever had been made.

It was true that the Navy and the Army were ready, but that was not through the efforts of Mr. Lloyd George, who had been most niggardly in the supplies that he doled out for the Defence Services.

The Imperial Airways plane Della, which arrived on Friday evening, brought one British and one German passenger. No mail or freight were carried.

GARRISON SCHOOL

Annual Prize Giving

The annual Prizegiving of the Garrison Elder Children's school took place at Murray Road on Saturday. Mrs. G. E. Hall distributed the prizes, and amongst those present were Col. G. E. Hall, and Major H. H. Joseph, Army Education Chief.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

In presenting his report the headmaster said:—

Ladies and Gentlemen—It is with great pleasure that we welcome today, Lt.-Col. G. E. Hall, M.C., our Officer Commanding Schools. Col. Hall took over that post in January last, on the arrival of the 2nd Bn. The Royal Scots and has supported us in every possible way.

This school year opened in September last and has, happily, been marked by no changes in the Staff, although we have had considerable fluctuation in the numbers of children attending. Work has proceeded satisfactorily throughout the year and most of the children have made excellent progress.

I am pleased to say that my plea to parents last year for the encouragement of children in their homework has met with a satisfactory response. Some of the homework done has been of an extraordinarily high standard, showing that co-operation of parents which is so useful in any school and so much valued by every member of the Staff here.

The attendance has been exceptionally good, reaching the very satisfactory figure of nearly 95 per cent. We have been fortunate in escaping almost entirely the ordinary epidemics which normally beset a school. We owe a debt of gratitude to our Medical Officer, Captain Lewis, R.A.M.C., whose general and unflagging interest has been a source of great help to us.

THE FIELD OF SPORT

In the realm of Sport we have had a fairly successful year. We began the year well by winning the Championship Flag at the An-

NEWS ABOUT THE SERVICES*ROYAL NAVY*LAUNCH OF A NEW MINESWEEPER

H.M.S. Bramble, which was launched at Devonport Dockyard recently, is the sixteenth vessel of the Halcyon class of minesweepers, construction of which was begun in 1933. They are vessels of 1,750 tons and 17 knots' speed, armed with two 4in. high-angle guns and five smaller guns. Lady Phipps, wife of Vice-Admiral Sir James Phipps, late Admiral Superintendent at Gibraltar, performed the naming ceremony. Seven earlier ships of the Navy have been named the Bramble, the last being gunboat of the Yangtze Flotilla, which was built in 1898 and sold in 1920. The first Bramble appears to have been captured from the Spaniards off Cadix in 1858, a 14-gun ship of 112 tons. The others were also small vessels, schooners or gunboats, at least one of which was employed in the surveying service in Australia and New Guinea about a century ago. The sixth Bramble, built in 1886, was renamed Cockatrice 10 years later on taking over the duties of the vessel of that name as station ship in the Danube.

WEATHER MAP REVISED

The second edition of air publication 893, the Weather Map, has been revised, and the re-written version, dated 1938, is now being distributed to R.A.F. units. In view of the forthcoming revision of Chapter XVII of air publication 1234 and the preparation of a new handbook on meteorology, the issue of A.P. 893 is being distributed on a limited scale only as a temporary measure.

R. A. F. IS NOW FIRST DEFENCE FORCE*ROYAL NAVY COMES SECOND

For the first time the R.A.F. is costing Britain more than either the Army or Navy. A Supplementary Air Estimate issued recently shows that our total air bill this year will be £134,403,000, an increase of £22,901,000 on the original estimate, writes a London correspondent.

To the Exchequer the airplane has now become Britain's first line of defence, with the Navy (£126,117,000) second, and the Army (£114,419,000) third.

Sir Kingsley Wood, Air Minister, and the Air Council signed a memorandum attached to the estimate to explain why our air arm has suddenly become our biggest bill.

The current air expansion programme, they say, aims at giving us 2,370 first line home defence planes by March 1940.

More airmen and pilots (13,000 more) are needed, bringing our air personnel up to 96,000.

More airfields are needed; thirty-two new bases have already been bought since May 1935 to add to our existing fifty-two R.A.F. airfields.

Warplane deliveries are to be speeded up again, and factory capacity for air production "considerably increased."

NEW RESERVE

Thousands more young men are needed as pilots in the Reserve, Volunteer Reserve, and Auxiliary Air Force, and the Air Ministry are considering forming a new civilian reserve of air radio operators.

Civil aviation gets a small share of the increased estimate. Provision for subsidies and grants to airlines and flying schools goes up by £100,000 to £1,343,000, but there is a drop of £99,000 for ground equipment on air routes.

These are details of the new cash payments needed:—

R.A.F. pay UP £282,000; Accommodation, fuel, stores, clothing, transport, UP £1,343,000; Airfields, UP by £28,240,000—more than 200 per cent!

Medical services, UP by £53,000; Technical training, UP by £130,000;

Reserve forces, UP by £432,000; Civil aviation, UP by £1,000; Miscellaneous, UP by £169,000; Air Ministry wages, UP by £120,000.

Airplanes and balloons are to cost us nearly £52,000,000 this year, instead of the £42,689,000 originally budgeted for.

PARIS TO LONDON IN 51 MINUTES*Fast Flight By R.A.F. Fighters

The fastest flight yet made between London and Paris was accomplished by the formation of 11 Hawker Hurricane fighters of No. 111 Squadron, R.A.F., which took part in the French air display at Villacoublay, says The Times.

Leaving Le Bourget at 10.25 a.m. British Summer Time, the formation landed at Northolt Aerodrome 55 minutes later, having passed over Croydon 51 minutes from taking off. The 235 miles from Le Bourget to Northolt via Boulogne and Lympne, were covered at an approximate speed of 260 miles an hour against a strong wind.

The fastest formation flight between England and France was made by the same squadron on its outward journey.

On that occasion it encountered head winds of almost gale force, but completed the flight from Northolt to Le Bourget in 66 minutes, at an average speed of 213 miles an hour. This is the first time the Hawker Hurricanes have gone abroad.

The formation was under the command of Squadron Leader J. W. Gillan, who last February flew an aircraft of the same type from Edinburgh to Northolt at an average speed of 408.75 miles an hour. That journey, helped by the wind, was made in the dark.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE EMPIRE*Lord Horne On The Need For Action

An appeal for a carefully planned programme of Empire migration and development was made by a number of speakers recently at the Empire Development Conference in the Empire Exhibition. Lord Horne criticized the suggestion of individual or family emigration put forward by the Overseas Settlement Board as "too limping a method to provide any solution," and said that if Germany were today in a position similar to ours she would be doing immensely more than we were doing to develop an Imperial estate.

Vice-Admiral E. A. Taylor, M.P., declared that we were losing our great position of being the sea carriers of the world because of State subsidies to shipping in many foreign countries. It was the number of ships in the mercantile marine and not fewer ships of greater size on which we must rely in time of peace and more especially war.

LUCRATIVE EMPLOYMENT

Reference was made by Lord Horne to the Guildhall Migration Conference held last year. It was the view of that conference, he said, that by increasing the opportunities of lucrative employment in the Empire settlers would be automatically attracted, and that when the scheme had once been established money from the financial centres would readily flow into channels recommended by a committee in which the utmost confidence and reliance could be reposed.

If a redistribution of population in the Empire was vital—as everybody acknowledged—both for purposes of development and defence, the proposal thus envisaged seemed the most efficient if anything, was to be accomplished in the near future.

It was the duty of the Empire Migration Conference through its committees to keep a watch on the administration of the funds granted by Parliament and to inform the Legislature and the

England's Duty To Help China

Mr. H. J. Timperley, the former "Manchester Guardian" correspondent in Peking, spoke recently at a luncheon of the New Europe Group, not about China, but on the impressions he has formed during the last two months of people in England and their attitude on the question of supplying help to China.

He had, he said, been seeing a great many people; Government and financial leaders, and putting the case for living up to what were, he felt, our commitments under the League Covenant, the Nine-Power Treaty, various resolutions at Geneva and statements in the House of Commons to help China defend herself against Japan's aggression. Russia had done a great deal; we so far had done nothing.

"I have been disillusioned by the attitude of the ordinary people," he said. "It is a great eye-opener to find that they seem to have so little to do with the policy carried out by the Government."

Mothers ARE SAYING:

Our Boys Need Men Teachers

Do you want your son to be taught by a man or a woman?

The views of thousands of parents are being taken on the subject by branches of the National Association of Schoolmasters, says a Home correspondent.

The association broke away from the National Union of Teachers fifteen years ago because the union refused to advocate men teachers for boys over eight years old.

Latest referendum result comes from Chester-le-Street (Durham). Forms were sent to 765 houses. No canvassing was allowed. With twenty-two failing to vote and seven papers spoiled, the result was—

For men teachers, 710 (92.8 per cent).

For women teachers, 28 (3.4 per cent).

In Jarrow 800 were for men, ninety for women; in Leeds 2,905 wanted men, eighty-nine wanted women teachers.

Now this is a fact not only with this particular quartette but with all other groups of singers who perform over ZBW. If there could be no recordings made of these groups, it would surely help the improvement of their singing. We do not blame them, as they, un-

MUSICAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK

BY ALLEGRO MODERATO

Lately we have had two newcomers to the local radio world, namely, Mollie Mennie, mezzo-soprano, and Greta Scull, pianiste.

We heard Mollie Mennie for the first time during the ZBW celebrations, and we thought her performance then better than her effort on Thursday evening. It is unfair to pass judgment until we have heard more, though we must say we found "At Dawning" during the Thursday night recital delightful.

As regards Greta Scull, her programme on Saturday night, consisting of "Pavilion" and "Sing a Song of Sixpence," was quite good for a first trial. We also reserve our opinion until we have heard her again.

This reminds us of microphone consciousness. It is a fact that the first time a performer faces a microphone, he has a sudden feeling of drying up. Words suddenly evaporate and he cannot find utterance. It is a feeling similar to stage fright, only more accentuated by the fact that one cannot see the audience, cannot feel with them, hear their applause or hisses.

Ed Wynn, the well-known American comedian, wanted the "feel" of the stage when he was invited to do his "Fire Chief" programme for Texaco over the radio. So the station provided an audience, and put a plate glass on the studio wall, so that he could see the people outside. In so many words, we mean that the "atmosphere" so essential to a good performance is in this way created.

The quartette consisting of Eva Turner (soprano), Helen Lockhart (soprano), Gaston d'Aquino (tenor), and Victor Sanders (baritone), which performed the "Perian Garden" suite last night, did not do so well as the first time it attempted the number last year. We thought the voices blended much better during that first appearance. Perhaps placing has something to do with the general effect. The individual contributions need no comment, but the concert effect, which is the most important factor in quartette singing, was somehow lacking. One voice or other would occasionally protrude above the others, every once in a while. Last year, there was not so much of this, there was more evenness and balance.

Now this is a fact not only with this particular quartette but with all other groups of singers who perform over ZBW. If there could be no recordings made of these groups, it would surely help the improvement of their singing. We do not blame them, as they, un-

Chungking, War-Time Capital, Well Served By Newspapers

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Chungking, July 25. To those who have been used to regard newspapers as an everyday institution like the telephone and electric light, its influence may not be so readily appreciated; but to a newly-established order of modern civilisation, the power of the press is tremendous.

A couple of weeks ago in Chungking, the war-time capital of China, the inhabitants, for one reason or another, failed to contribute more than $100,000 on cash, silver or gold in connection with the first anniversary of hostilities.

A timely reminder soon appeared in the local press, with the result that the people are now eagerly striving to raise the fund, and they hope that they may raise $1,200,000.

MR. LIN SEN'S GIFT

Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the National Government, has contributed a gold loving cup, worth $10,000, to be auctioned off to the highest bidder. The cup was presented to him several years ago by members of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service on the occasion of his birthday.

The press report that Hankow has been contributing more than $1,000,000 has also encouraged Chungking to greater efforts.

As a further indication of the power of the press, the Central Daily News, principal organ of the Central Kuomintang, formerly issued in Nanking but now published in Hankow, has decided to issue a Chungking edition. Mr. Cheng Chwang-po, editor-in-chief of the Journal, is now in Chungking supervising preparations.

NEW DAILIES

Recently Chungking saw the birth or transfer here of a number of new dailies. The first to come from Nanking was the Min Pao, a tabloid with full news service. Then appeared the China Times of Shanghai, at one time the third largest paper in the country. The South-West Daily News saw light for the first time two months ago.

Both Chengtu, the Szechuen capital, and Chungking, its trade port, are today each served by more than a dozen daily journals, some having a circulation of 8,000 to 12,000.

NATIVE NEWSPRINT

As newsprint costs more than $20.00 a ream these days, many of them employ native materials, and Kiating, on the Min River in Szechuen, has been turning out fairly good newsprint for some months.

Yungchuan, Fehpei, Nanking, and many small towns in Szechuen also have their country newspaper. The air lines and long-distance bus service, covering as many as 13 motor roads leading to all parts of interior, are able to bring newspapers from the leading cities to many towns and villages within the same day.

General Feng Chih-an, former Chairman of the Hopei Provincial Government, whose troops took part in the initial clash against the Japanese at Lukouchiao last summer, has arrived in Hankow on a summons from the Chinese high command, says a Chinese dispatch.

U.S. CO-OPERATION IN ARMS PURCHASES

Mr. Morgenthau's Busy Visit To French Capital

Paris, July 24.

Well-informed circles here declared on Saturday night that great significance should be attached to the stay in Paris of the Secretary of the American Treasury, Mr. Henry Morgenthau who arrived on Saturday morning in Boulogne by the S.S. Statendam and proceeded at once to Paris where he will have a series of important conversations.

The programme drawn up for his visit permits the conclusion to be drawn that Mr. Morgenthau has been entrusted by President Roosevelt with a special mission that concerns the foreign political situation, just as much as the currency and economic situation of France.

The visitor will, on Sunday morning, wait on President Lebrun and Mme. Lebrun and will afterwards lunch with "the American Ambassador in Chantilly.

Sunday evening will be spent with the French Economics Minister, M. Patenotte, and on Monday he will see the Finance Minister, M. Marchandeau. In the evening he will attend a banquet in the American Embassy when members of the French Cabinet will be present.

OFFICIAL LUNCHEON

On Tuesday M. Bonnet will give an official luncheon party in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs where Mr. Morgenthau will again meet Messrs Daladier, Marchandeau and Patenotte so that when Mr. Morgenthau, who is regarded here as a personal friend and confidant of President Roosevelt, leaves Paris on Tuesday he will have spent two extremely busy days.

It is believed that the two main topics of the conversations will be the stabilisation of the currency relations between Great Britain, France and the United States and the co-operation of the United States in financing Anglo-French armaments purchases. (Trans-ocean).

NAMOA ISLAND

Further Bombardment

Swatow, July 23.

Japanese warships and aircraft subjected Namoa Island to further bombardment yesterday.

At 5 a.m. a Japanese plane appeared over Lungoa on Namoa Island and dropped several incendiary bombs on civilian houses. Two hours later three other enemy machines attacked Chingoa, another part of the island, dropping two missiles. Meanwhile Japanese warships anchored off the island opened a broadside shore. Scores of civilian houses at both Lungoa and Chingoa were set on fire.

At 2 p.m. a group of three Japanese reconnoitred Tokluma and Jaoping. After the reconnaissance, they staged another raid on Namoa Island. The incendiary bombs they dropped caused huge fires which could be seen from high-level ground in Swatow.

It is estimated that over 100 civilians were killed by the Japanese bombardment during the day. (Central News).

FLOOD THREATENS NORTH CHINA

Hankow, July 23.

The Peiping-Liaoning Railway and the northern sector of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway are menaced by flood as a result of the collapse of sections of the dykes along the Yangtze River and the South Grand Canal at Tangkuan-tun, according to a Tientsin message.

Heavy downpours in Peiping and Tientsin during the last few days have caused part of the cities to be submerged in water. In Peiping the water at the low-lying districts near the city gates is almost knee deep. Traffic between inside and outside the city has been rendered extremely difficult. Telegraph and telephone wires have been damaged at hundreds of places.

Meanwhile, it is learned that mountain freshets have damaged the Peiping-Suiyuan Railway track at Tatung and Pinglichuan. Traffic on the railway has been disrupted. (Central News).

ARYANISATION OF AUSTRIA

SHOWS AMERICAN LOVE OF PEACE

Washington, July 24.

In a message to President Ortiz of Argentina, President Roosevelt says that the Gran Chaco peace treaty between Bolivia and Paraguay "offered concrete evidence of the existence of a very real and lasting inter-American solidarity" and "showed the ever-increasing insistence on the part of public opinion in all our nations that war should be abolished from this hemisphere." (Reuter).

SANCTIONS AGAINST JAPAN

Appeal To Peace Conference

Hankow, July 23.

An appeal to the forthcoming International Peace Campaign Conference in Paris to urge the democratic countries to adopt effective sanctions against Japan was contained in a cable sent yesterday by Mr. T. V. Soong and Mr. Shao Li-tze in their capacity of Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the China Board of the Campaign.

Whilst appreciating the efforts so far exerted by the Campaign to check Japanese ruthless actions and to safeguard world peace, the two Chinese leaders opined that only by collective action and the application of economic sanctions could there be any hope of a wakening Japan.

WILL FIGHT TO END

They requested the conference to urge the democratic countries to take due cognizance of the indivisibility of peace and the impossibility of isolation as well as their responsibilities for world peace and immediately adopt effective measures to help China to overcome the common foe of mankind, for to save China means to save the world and themselves.

They emphasized that the Chinese people would fight to the bitter end irrespective of sacrifices. (Central News).

NEW "GOVERNMENT" IN ANHWEI

Shanghai, July 23.

The town of Fengsu on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway is to be the seat of a new "Government" installed by the Japanese in the province of Anhwei, declared Liang Hu-chi, "President of the new Government," which has appointed Nyl-Tao-cheng Governor of Anhwei province.

In Nanking, special schools are soon to be opened to train district officials.

These schools will be conducted by the Home Minister of the new "Nanking Government," Chen Chun.

A large part of Anhwei province is still in Chinese hands, that part south of the Yangtze being occupied by Chinese forces. (Trans-ocean).

British Ship Boarded By Japanese

SHOT FIRED ACROSS THE BOWS

British naval authorities in Hong Kong have received a full report of the boarding of the Gap Rock, by a Japanese naval party, of the 4,742 tons Hong Kong steamer Leana (Captain E. Green). The vessel was en route to Port Parveval, French Indo-China, for a cargo of metal.

The vessel had hardly left Hong Kong waters when she was intercepted by a Japanese warship. Signals, which could not be distinguished from the bridge of the British ship, broke from her yard-arm. Another signal, reading "Stop!" followed within a few minutes as the warship came almost alongside.

Captain Green rang through the signal to the engine room and followed it with the signal "Full Speed Astern," the Leana coming to a stop.

The Japanese, however, testified to their impatience with a shot across the bows!

A party of Japanese, all armed to the teeth, came on board. They were led by a young officer who, in broken English, demanded to see the ship's papers. These were shown him and, after inspecting them and apparently finding them to his satisfaction, he asked for the log book. This Captain Green refused to let him see.

SEES LOG BOOK

The Japanese officer consulted a book of instructions which he carried in his hand. "My instructions are that I am to have the log book," he said. So saying, he took it from Captain Green's hands. In spite of the Captain's protests, he made a notation in it in Japanese characters. He then wanted to see the cargo.

At this point Captain Green threatened to radio for naval assistance. The Japanese officer consulted with some of the other members of his party and decided that the search was not really necessary.

"Why did you not stop immediately on seeing our signals," he asked.

"Because your flags should be sent to the laundry," replied Captain Green.

As a result of the incident, it was disclosed on Saturday, new instructions have been issued by the British authorities to all Captains of British vessels. They have been instructed to call for immediate assistance by radio, should the Japanese ever attempt to see anything other than the ship's papers.

"ARRESTING" LEPROSY

The annual report of the Mission to Lepers shows that in its homes there are now over 10,000 lepers and 900 healthy children of leper parents.

The mission also helps other leper homes under Christian direction with over 6,500 lepers and children. Medical returns available at the close of last year state that out of 13,946 patients who had received treatment for over three months 1,485 had become "arrested" (or symptom-free) cases and 7,486 had more or less improved, more than 11,500 lepers were treated as outpatients.

Special attention is being directed to the care and treatment of leper children, and last year the first steps were taken in an after-care scheme for the settlement of "arrested" cases on the land.

It is hoped to provide shortly a new leper hospital at Chengtu, which will enable the many medical students at the West China Union University to obtain tuition and experience in the treatment of the disease.

Mystery surrounds the disappearance, from the Gloucester Hotel on Monday morning, of Mr. William C. Stage, a middle-aged American, who walked out of the hotel on Monday and has since been missing.

Mr. Stage, who is 48 years of age, and the representative of the Ross Carrier Company, arrived in Hong Kong from Manila by a Blue Funnel steamer on July 4 and registered immediately at the Gloucester Hotel.

He was well-known to the American business community with whom he was extremely popular.

TO SAFEGUARD REFUGEES

Ready To Evacuate

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Chungking, July 21.

The central Chinese authorities, to safeguard the war refugees, have ordered as many of them as possible, to first concentrate at Changsha and Hengchow in Hunan and Hankow, Wuchang, Shashi, Itu, and Ichang, in Hupeh, so that when necessary, some of them may be transferred to Chungking, in Szechuan.

Szechuan, in a way, is today better than many other provinces in China for the distribution of persons coming into its midst. There is a public highway leading from Changsha to Chungking by way of Kweiyang, in Kweichow, while the Yangtze provides water-route for all those coming from Hankow and other ports in central China.

TRAVEL MADE EASY

For some time travel in south-west China has been made much easier. Airlines of the Eurasia and the China National Aviation Corporations have made Hong Kong, Chengtu, Chungking, and Hankow as their principal stations from which connections to all leading points in south-west and north-west may be arranged practically daily, including Canton, Wuchow, Nanning, Kweilin, Liuchow, Chengtu, Chungking, Hankow, Changsha, Kunming, Sian, Luchow, Suifu, and Kiating.

Lately the China Travel Service has established a Chungking office, and its Hong Kong branch is ready at any time to arrange for one to come from the south by steamer, railroad, and/or bus service, if desired, by way of Haiphong, Hanoi, Kunming, Kweiyang, to Chungking.

The Szechuan Travel Agency, with head office in Chungking, has offices in Hong Kong, Hanoi, Kunming, Kweiyang, Chengtu, Kuanhsien, and Kiating, attached to some of which are hostels for the benefit of their through passengers and patrons.

The Szechuan Public Highways Bureau operates more than 150 buses in its 13 short and long distance routes, while the Ming Sung Industrial Company runs a fleet of more than 50 along the Min, the Kiating, and the Yangtze kiang.

MORE JAPANESE SAVAGERY

A brief wireless message was received in the Colony on Saturday morning, announcing another act of terrorism against junk people.

It appears that as the vessel which sent the message was off Breaker Point, 30 miles south-east of Swatow, a fleet of several Japanese war vessels was sighted. Pinances from these warships were busily engaged in stripping a fleet of junks of anything that could prove of any use to them. One after another, the junks were all set on fire! No fewer than nine blazing junks were sighted!

The fate of the junks' crews is not known. It is not very likely, however, that the Japanese were gracious enough to spare too many lives. Why should poor junk people be allowed to live?

MR. NAKAMURA'S HURRIED DEPARTURE

The Japanese Consul-General, Mr. Nakamura, left unexpectedly for Japan on Friday. He sailed by the R.M.S. Empress of Japan on receipt of an urgent call from the Japanese Foreign Office.

The purpose of this visit to Japan, it is understood, is to make a report to the Foreign Office on conditions in South China.

Mr. Nakamura will return to the Colony, it is understood.

Get rid of Disfiguring Blemishes this Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

Half an hour later, another squadron of 12 bombers raided Yingtak, where they released about 10 missiles.

At the same time, three other machines bombed Cheungmukton station on the Canton-Kowloon Railway. The raiders passed over here but were kept at a high altitude by brick Chinese anti-aircraft fire. (Central News).

THE GOVERNOR'S VISIT TO CANTON

HONG KONG, JULY 24.

WE are sure that our Chinese friends would have been happier if the surrounding circumstances in Canton had been normal for the visit of H.E. the Governor of Hong Kong to the City of Rams. But while admittedly devoid of political significance, the visit of the Governor of Hong Kong to Canton will always be an indication of the friendship and cordiality existing between the British Empire and the Chinese Republic, between two of the largest political entities of the world.

Sympathy with the aspirations of Nationalist China, has always been expressed as a permanent policy of the British Government and the foundations for a lasting friendship were laid by Sir Austen Chamberlain, the brother of the Prime Minister. The famous December declaration of Sir Austen in 1923 marked the beginning of a new era in Sino-British relations. An era the fruits of which were just beginning to be realised when war was thrust upon this country with disastrous results.

The factor most contributing towards the delay in the fruition of the new relations between China and Great Britain may have been the attitude of the British traders in Shanghai. While their relations with the officials of the Nationalist Government in Nanking were cordial and good they were less progressive than the traders of other countries. This resulted in many of the major contracts for industrial development being given to German, Czechoslovakian, and other firms. In South China, in the provinces of Kwangtung, Kwangsi, and Yunnan the movement towards industrialisation during the last ten years has been evident. But during the last five years the Kwangtung Provincial Government undertook the erection of several factories. The sugar, cement, fertiliser, and sulphuric acid plants served the real needs of the people. They also served to indicate the direction of the general development of China's industry.

It is an axiom that political relations are based upon the more lasting economic or cultural affinities. And it has also been truly stated that where those economic and cultural affinities do not exist political relations will be constantly in a state of flux.

Between Canton and Hong Kong there already has existed economic relations of nearly a century. Hong Kong has served as the marketing centre for trade. Whatever the merchants of Canton and the vast hinterland wanted to sell or buy, they came to Hong Kong to do business. But today the commodities to be bought and sold are different. Their characteristics are different. It is mostly machinery, and railway material, and in the present war situation it is clear that consumer goods will diminish in demand while the market for capital goods will increase.

While industrial development in South China will begin in real earnest with the return of peace, opportunities are plentiful where the local authorities seek to encourage the maintenance of local economic conditions at the pre-war level. In a province like Kwangsi where mining was developing the war must have resulted in a drain upon the labour supply in that industry. The introduction and use of machinery in the tin mining districts between Wuchow and Kweilin should be effective in maintaining production in spite of the loss of human labour. At the same time whereas formerly the low cost of labour probably made the employment of machinery uneconomic, it is probable that today the economic truths applicable to the rest of the world (but untrue for China) would hold.

A STRONG United China has long been recognized as essential to a lasting peace in the Far East. And no country can be strong unless its industry is developed. We in Hong Kong possess unrivalled opportunities to assist and participate in this development. And the goodwill, shown by the British people towards China in her present travail will be a guarantee that British merchants will participate in the industrialisation of China in a spirit of service, which is the real object of modern commerce and trade.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A.M. LOSSIUS

The funeral of the late Mrs. Agnes Mary Petter Lossius, wife of Capt. J. J. Lossius, who died on Saturday at the Queen Mary Hospital after a long illness, took place at the Colonial Cemetery yesterday.

The chief mourners were the deceased's husband and her sister. There was a large attendance of friends at the graveside and many wreaths were sent.

ground, disgustingly close to the gutters, where they are picked up by shoppers of the poorer classes. In one instance a motorist had to wait until these "shop windows" were cleared before he could get a safe passage through the crowded street.

As was reported in the local press some days ago a certain quantity of milk from Canton and elsewhere has found its way into the local market and while we appreciate that this must be expected in these days of keen competition, we nevertheless are of the opinion that any firm or individual caught engaging in this extremely dangerous practice should be dealt with most severely by the authorities.

WE learn from an authoritative source that due to the influx of refugees into the Colony and the consequent increased demand for milk, the Colony's supplies have not been quite sufficient of recent weeks or even months.

BE that as it may there is no excuse whatever for profiteering, for that is what this importing of milk amounts to.

As compared to other ports in the East, Hong Kong has been singularly fortunate in that the health of the Colony has always been most jealously guarded by the Department concerned. Let there be the slightest sign of the possibility of an epidemic and action is taken at once.

But no amount of precautionary measures on the part of those responsible would be of any avail unless the unstinted support of the whole of the community is forthcoming. It is the bounden duty of every citizen to give that support and anybody doing anything that might prove injurious to the health of the Colony should have the fact brought home very forcibly that selfishness cannot and will not be tolerated when there is so much at stake.

EGYPT TO TRADE WITH RUSSIA

Cairo, July 24.

The Egyptian Government wishes to enter into direct negotiations with Soviet Russia about the arrangement of a trade treaty but wishes, as before, to remain without diplomatic relations.

Preliminary negotiations to this end were begun in Ankara some time ago between the Egyptian Minister and the Soviet Russian Ambassador.

In the event of these negotiations leading to a satisfactory result the export of Russian timber to Egypt and of Egyptian cotton to Soviet Russia will pass direct by sea instead of, as heretofore, via Holland and England. (Transocean).

CHINA CAN BOMB JAPAN

Hankow, July 23.

With the opening of the meeting of the International Peace Campaign in Paris today, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Chairman of the Military Affairs Commission, has sent a cable to that gathering asking it to use its influence in restraining Japanese bombing of open cities in China.

Among the objects of Japanese bombings are foreign gunboats, diplomatic representatives of third Powers, Red Cross units, schools, hospitals, refugees and fishing boats, said the Generalissimo.

"It is not impossible for Chinese planes to bomb Japan," added the telegram, "but we do not want to commit such act. I hope your Campaign will accomplish its objective in securing protection for civilians especially the old and weak, and carrying out its mission of peace." (International News Agency).

GERMAN RED CROSS MISSION

Hello &amp; Goodbye

— BY A. W. HYER —

"We are no slouch!" "We Cover the Waterfront."—No remarks please!

And while tearing up and down the Kowloon Wharfs with a hot sun laughing down on us midst lots of smelly smells—dodging cranes and those Chinese Tonerville trolleys we decided that "Our Waterfront" should be modernized.

An electric rickshaw—a hot dog and coco-cola stand—an air-conditioned telephone booth with a typewriter department and so on and so on.

Ah! Ha! That would be a "high" in up-to-dateness in news-digging.

C.N.A.C.

NOTE TO ALL OF YOU: A change again in the schedule of C.N.A.C., commencing today, the 25th, this company's planes will be flying Monday, Wednesday and Friday from Kai Tak to Chungking via Hankow.

Arriving Saturday 3.45 p.m. on the C.N.A.C. plane from Hankow was Dr. H. H. Bruhl. Under his charge was Mr. E. Delbruck who is suffering from infantile paralysis contracted in the northern city.

This 25-year-old German chap stood the flying trip down very well. He was transferred to an ambulance at the airport and rushed to Queen Mary Hospital where Dr. G. C. Canaval is taking charge of his case.

We trust there will be an improvement in Mr. Delbruck's condition, it is a tough break, and we extend our best wishes for a quick recovery.

Imperial Airways.

SATURDAY 5.20 P.M., it was "How-do-you-do" again to Captain L. J. M. White and co-pilot W. A. Cash when they took off in with the "Della" from Bangkok.

A very satisfied customer from Southampton, via Imperial Airways, was Baron C. V. Sternberg. This very tall interesting person is on his way to Tokyo and business of an electrical nature. Maybe, and because of our being in the femme department he did not feel we could be interested in this subject, and he had little to say to us about the business.

This gentleman found the plane trip most comfortable and the only way for Business Travel.

Mr. Cyril Rogers the other customer on the "Della" was enroute to Shanghai. The destination address—British Consulate, Shanghai. His arrival was a "hello" and wham! he was into a motor car and away. We guess he did not want to see us peoples gathered at Kai Tak for a few kind words. M. V. Neptuna

WE WERE VERY GLAD to say another "hello" to Captain F. F. Vogelmann and his M. V. Neptuna when she slipped into her pier at 10 a.m. "Saturday" and Australia is still going strong" he reports.

The full passenger list of this darby ship is comprised mainly of round-trippers out for a holiday and they certainly can have a perfect one travelling via Burns Philp Line. Captain Cummings, a passenger from Sydney will spend several weeks in the Colony. His trip is primarily to pick up a 48 foot schooner, being built in Hong Kong yards and chaperone her back to Australia.

In the coming week we shall have a "jaw" with the Captain. Inspect his charge, and pass the story on to you.

Empress of Japan

HIGH NOON: Away for Shanghai and Vancouver—and believe it or not, we have our suspicions that the customers were glad to be leaving our hot weather!

In a very handsome manner Mr. Leigh Cramer of National City Bank of New York, was bid "Swell Vacation," "Happy Landings" and "Come Back Soon."

This ancient native will certainly be missed by the social friends of the Colony, but we and all the rest of the peoples hereabouts hope that the six month leave will be one of the best and that you and the Mrs. and youngsters will be back amongst us, again.

How do the peoples do it? Mr. E. T. McMullen, of Canadian Pacific Fume was bid an equally Royal Auvoir.

The industrious Mister also left for a holiday which from the looks of the commencement will be "One of Ones."

Sir Henry Pollock, who needs no classification, we all know him, and like him so much, too, sailed for Yokohama aboard the Empress of Japan.

After a short visit to said port he will be back with us. Have a good time!

We are very sorry to say that the auvoir given to Lady Wood, wife of Sir Henry Wood of London, was so very packed that we did not have the pleasure of an interview with this popular person.

However, we do hope that you will visit the Colony soon, again, and a very pleasant trip.

M. V. Petsdam.

NINE A.M. ON SUNDAY the "Potsdam" skidded herself into the pier for a ten-hour visit.

The band was playing, lots of people were hanging over the side—and Whoo! Who do you think we spilled on the lower bridge?

Hello and Hello, it was Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Marshall of Socony Vacuum Company.

Only passing through on a short visit to Manila, out of Yokohama, were these two charming customers.

Many males and females were down to say "gosh, glad to see you again" to this charming couple.

And we are sorry that you did not plan for a stop over in the Colony after such a long absence.

Pan American Airways

MANILA SENT BACK to Hong Kong via the Philippine Clipper all our big shots, who enjoyed a chucked full six days of pleasure and sight-seeing in the south.

"It is impossible to define the word hospitality, when it comes to the perfect trip and goings-on we enjoyed in Manila," was expressed by several of the brass hats who returned to their desks in the Colony.

And Mr. Kinsey and Lieut. Commander Murray, did you two fine gentlemen gain weight?

The Round trip was most comfortable, and the six days in Manila and Baguio were truly a vacation—sentiments expressed by all.

Parties Prepare For General Election In Autumn 1939

The General Election is expected to take place in the autumn of next year. That is the basis on which all political parties are making their preparations.

Candidates are being arranged for constituencies as rapidly as possible, to give them more time to "nurture" their divisions.

Recently party organisers all over the country turned their attention to the new electoral roll.

That may be the roll on which the appeal to the country will be made, but no one can tell for certain yet.

The register now being prepared will be effective for a year from October 15, 1938. If, therefore, the General Election takes place before October 15, 1939, that roll will be used; if the election is after October 15, the register to be prepared next year will be operative.

CHANCES SLIGHT

Although the chances of this year's register being used are slight—the General Election is likely to take place at the end of October or beginning of November, 1939—the political organisers of all parties are making special efforts to see that all their supporters eligible to vote are on the register.

The list will be published soon, but people who are omitted or who have been incorrectly entered have until August 7 to make claims.

New voters have until August 13 to establish their cases.

There are 3½ million people in Britain who are entitled to vote at a General Election.

Meekness Shown By Leaders Over Border Dispute

MANOEUVRES TO HINDER TRANSFER OF TROOPS TO CHINA?

Commenting on the situation on the Soviet-Manchukuo frontier, where tension rose to such pitch some days ago that the outbreak of hostilities between the Soviet Union and Japan appeared to be imminent, informed quarters here point out that the recent crisis was due to the general nervousness which now prevails in the Frontier region rather than changes in the situation. It is declared that some units of the Soviet army on the frontier have, during the last five years, regularly been moved to camps in the disputed hill region of Chankufeng during the height of the summer season.

On previous occasions the Japanese never took much notice of this, apparently because they considered the swampy valleys of the frontier region unfit for settlement purposes. This year, however, the occupation of the regions by Soviet troops caused considerable excitement in Manchukuo in view of the Soviet Union's attitude towards the Sino-Japanese conflict and because it was reported that Soviet troops were constructing fortifications in the occupied areas.

This excitement received a further stimulus from the reports

JAPANESE DENY REPORTS

Tokyo, July 24.

Latest despatches here today deny that the two Japanese officers who had crossed the Soviet-Manchukuo frontier with the white flag of truce on July 18, have returned to Manchukuo, as stated in an earlier report.

According to a Japanese news agency the officers had not returned to the Manchukuo frontier up to this evening.—(Transocean).

published in certain papers but it appears that the Japanese are anxious not to accentuate the tension by military measures although some quarters in Japan regard the intensified Russian activity in the Frontier region as a manoeuvre which is intended to prevent the transfer of Japanese troops from Manchukuo to China.

Japanese military authorities, so it is declared, are inclined not to get unduly excited and are merely regrouping their forces in Manchukuo and Korea so as to be prepared for any eventuality.—(Transocean).

Germany's Air Strength REPORTED DECISION TO DOUBLE THE FRONT-LINE FORCE

Shortly after the German-Czecho-Slovak crisis in May the German Army command undertook to examine the military consequences for Germany that followed from the reaction of the Powers. My information is that they concluded as a result of this examination, and in view of the German and the international food situation, that Germany must concentrate all her military efforts on preparation for a "lightning flash" war, writes a Manchester Guardian correspondent.

According to the plans of the military command, this aim requires, on the one hand, a completion of the defensive positions in the Reich—that is, the reinforcement of the German fortifications—and, on the other hand, an increase of the air fleet.

For the first time the entire military command in Germany was united in its approval of a suggestion, put forward by Field Marshal Goring a long time ago, for an extraordinary increase in the air fleet.

The German air fleet comprises at present between 2,500 and 3,000 first-line planes. The German aircraft industry has a monthly production capacity of 350,400 machines.

Goring's suggestion, which has now, I learn, been accepted, demands an increase of approximately twice as many first-line planes, as well as considerable improvement in quality and efficiency.

The military command asserts that the realisation of these plans would create the necessary conditions for Germany's "unconquerability" in a short war.

A feature of World's Fair to be held in New York next year will be a replica of Robert Burns' cottage, faithfully reproducing not merely the architecture but the interior decorations of the Scottish national poet's home at Alloway, Ayrshire.

The fire is still burning and it will probably be several days before it will be completely extinguished.—(Transocean).

Berlin, July 24.

The report that Germany and Manchukuo have concluded a trade agreement, whereby Germany will increase her purchases of soya beans from 100,000,000 to 200,000,000 marks per year, is denied by official German circles.

It is learned that negotiations are still under way and it is hoped they will be concluded by the end of this month.

Germany, however, will grant Manchukuo a long-term credit of about 65,000,000 yen for the purpose of mining and development of other industries.

Cessation Of Military Supplies To Japan

CO-OPERATIVE WHOLESALERS AND BOYCOTT OF JAPAN

London, July 24.

The Co-operative Wholesale Society's attitude towards proposals for a boycott of Japanese goods was explained by Sir William Bradshaw, President of the Society, at a meeting in Manchester yesterday.

He said that out of 1,200 affiliated societies, only 40 asked for a boycott.

Sir William said: "If we believed that the institution of a boycott by the C.W.S. would in any way affect the attitude of the Japanese, it would be considered; but as we see the position, boycott on our part merely means that the trade we have been doing and which our members still desire to do with us in Japanese goods, will be put in the hands of private traders. The boycott will not be effective."

SMALL VOLUME

The Society, said Sir William, is not desirous of supporting Japanese trade, and at the most only 5 percent of its total imports related to goods of Japanese origin. Even this figure within the last six months had been reduced by over 40 percent.

The Board is of the opinion that nothing short of a national boycott could be effective.—(Reuter).

BRITAIN WILL USE INFLUENCE IN CZECHO-SLOVAKIA

ANTI-RELIGIOUS PROPAGANDA

Moscow, July 22.

The Red Army newspaper Red Star demands the intensification of anti-religious propaganda in Soviet Russia.

The paper declares that 30,000 religious organisations still exist in Russia, and charges that clergy of all denominations and creeds are conducting espionage. The paper specifically mentions Catholic priests who, it alleges, work under orders from the Polish General Staff with "the blessing of the Pope, bitterest enemy of the Soviet toilers."

Sectarian leaders throughout the Volga are described as "Hitlerite agents."—(Reuter).

Premier's "Friendly Talk" With German Ambassador

In authoritative circles here on Saturday night it was made clear that no disposition prevailed to encourage the far-reaching speculations about the European situation which have followed as the result of the conversations of the last few days concerning which a German semi-official news agency, speaking of the last call of the German Ambassador in London, Herr von Dirksen, on the British Premier, stated: "The German Ambassador called on the British Prime Minister on Friday to take leave on departing for a long vacation."

At a friendly conversation that followed in which Anglo-German relations in general to draw the attention of the British Government to the reports from Prague which showed that there seemed to be no disposition there to meet the Sudetic German demands, even in a moderate way.

The British Premier thereupon replied that the British Government would use its influence with the Czechoslovak Government, but no concrete suggestions or proposals were made by either party.

In political circles it is thought that the German Government, as heretofore, held the view that the British and French Governments would make emphatic representations in Prague with the object of affecting a rapid and comprehensible solution acceptable to all concerned.—(Transocean).

SUDETEN GERMAN QUESTION

Discussed In Two Capitals

London, July 23.

The problem of the Sudeten Germans and Czechoslovakia will be discussed by the French Cabinet today.

The German Ambassador to London, Herr von Dirksen, who had a conversation with Mr. Neville Chamberlain yesterday, is forwarding to Berlin a report to Herr Hitler.

It is declared that at yesterday's conversation, the German Ambassador did not make any concrete proposals or suggestions regarding the Czech situation.—(Reuter).

Shanghai dye works have increased their fees by 50%, while bakeries will presently raise the prices of their products by 30 per cent., says a report to the "Sin Wan Pao." Several influential public organizations, alarmed by the unfavourable effects of the price increases on the livelihood of the people, are reported to be considering measures to stabilize the prices.

CZECH PROBLEM
OPTIMISMProspects Of Solution

London, July 23.

The prospects of a solution of the Czechoslovakian minorities question is regarded with more optimism this morning by the papers.

"The Times" states that the draft of the Nationalities Statute will provide for four independent parliamentary corporations in Bohemia, Slovakia, Moravia-Silesia and Carpatho-Ukraine.

These regions would be accorded independent administrative rights and would assume a number of obligations which have hitherto been in the hands of the Central Government.

Attention is also called to the declaration of the Czechoslovakian Government that the Nationalities Statute is not intended as a document which must be accepted or rejected in its entirety but as a basis for consideration.—(Transocean).

New National
OrganisationCIVIL AIR GUARD
TO BE ESTABLISHED
WITHOUT DELAY

London, July 24.

Sir Kingsley Wood, Minister for Air, announced yesterday that a new national organisation to be known as the Civil Air Guard will be established without delay and will be open to all between the ages of 18 and 50, irrespective of sex.

The scheme, said Sir Kingsley Wood, is to bring about a revolutionary change in flying costs with subsidies paid to lightplane clubs, to which the scheme is linked.

The cost of qualification for an "A" licence will be reduced by approximately £2.

It is believed that the scheme, which reduces flying costs by about half a crown per hour, will produce a pool of experienced flyers from which it will be possible to draw pilots and other useful aviation assistants in time of emergency.—(Reuters).

CHANGSHA RAID

Changsha, July 24.

Changsha was subjected to another raid by 17 Japanese planes yesterday morning.

The raiders coming in two groups of eight and nine dumped over 60 bombs in the northern suburbs, killing two farmers and wounding seven. Chinese anti-aircraft guns fired heavily at them.—(Central News).

NANCHANG BOMBED

Nanchang, July 24.

A squadron of 20 Japanese planes raided Nanchang early yesterday morning. Some 20 bombs were dropped, landing on open fields.

Throughout the day Japanese planes made extensive reconnaissance over north Kiangsi.—(Central News).

KIUKIANG HEAVILY BOMBED

Kiukiang, July 24.

Despite a drizzle, Japanese aircraft subjected Kiukiang and the points in the neighbourhood to continuous raids throughout yesterday.

Hundreds of explosives were released by the enemy machines. The casualties in Kiukiang alone numbered roughly 300 whilst about 300 civilian houses were wrecked. The resultant casualties and damage at Shihpiu and other points are believed to be heavy too.

Chinese planes raided a concentration of Japanese warships early yesterday morning, but the damage has not been ascertained.

BORDER TROUBLE
NOT SERIOUS,
SAYS MR. HULL

Washington, July 24.

Basing his judgment on State Department advice, Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, declared at a press conference yesterday that he was little disturbed by the Russo-Japanese tension.

Nothing reported has been sufficiently important to merit detailed discussion, he said.—(Reuters).

PLAN FOR NEW SHIPS NOW
SHELVED

London, July 23.

The two new ships which it was recently proposed should be built in Britain for the Canadian-Australian line, will not be built at present, owing to the fact that the cost of building had reached an uneconomical pitch.

As soon as it is economically possible, the ships will be constructed.

The draft of an agreement has been submitted to the Governments of the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the Fiji Islands, providing for the construction of passenger and cargo vessels for the run from Vancouver to Suva, Sydney, Wellington and Melbourne.—(Reuters).

Bradman
AgainBUT ENGLAND IN FAIR POSITIONDOUBLE BATTING
FAILURES

(BY "NEW L.B.W.")

Shot out for a beggarly 223 on a good wicket, England nevertheless found herself in a comparatively sound position at the end of the second day's play in the Fourth Test match at Headingley. In fact, but for another inimitable Bradman, she would in all probability have found herself with a first innings lead.

Bradman's innings was a typical effort, rivalling in fact surpassing—that of Hammond earlier on. He it was who stemmed the tide of the England shock attack, at least to some extent. Thriving, as he has always done, against fast bowling (that is, all fast bowling that fell short of the speed and accuracy of Larwood), he stood between his side and complete collapse and his 103, scored out of 153, must rank as one of his best innings.

Full credit must be given to the English bowlers for the way in which they tackled their very tough task and, though from this distance, one can only surmise, I think it is a very safe guess to say that Hammond must have handled his bowling extremely well. In him England seem indeed to have discovered, quite apart from his greatness with the bat, another Maclaren or Plum Warner.

The position now is full of interest. England are 19 runs behind on the first innings. Opening in their second venture to the crease, Edrich and Barnett are together with 49 runs on the board. Despite, or perhaps, because of, Edrich's recurring failures, I am offering the bold opinion that he will do something really worthwhile this time, and Barnett has already been tried and proven. When we add to this that there are still the mighty Hammond and the others to go, England does not by any means seem to be in such a bad position after all.

EXCUSES IN
TOKYOGenerous Attitude
With Soviet

Tokyo, July 23.

The chorus of the Japanese press today extensively dealing with reports of the Russian troop movements in the Far East, is of particular interest since they are giving a comparative harmless interpretation to Russian military measures and refuse to see their reason in an increasing of tension in Soviet-Japanese relations.

The Tokyo "Asahi Shimbun" declares that the Soviet troop movements are not reinforcement from other districts but merely regular relief movements. The measures were, possibly taken for safety reasons in connection with the recent light of General Lushkow.

GENERAL KOISO'S
STATEMENT

Great attention is also being paid in Tokyo to a statement of General Koiso hitherto commander-in-chief of the troops in Korea, who likewise connected the Russian troop movements with the fight of General Lushkow.

Japanese military circles add that the troop movements might possibly result from a complete regrouping of the Soviet border garrisons.

General Koiso declared that he did not believe the border incident would assume serious proportions. On the other hand, some political circles here opine that the occupation of the Chankufeng hills by the Soviets and the negative attitude of the Soviet Government in this matter had created a situation that must be carefully watched.—(Transocean).

U. S. SPRINTERS
ON THE SCREENAlbritton's Jump
In Slow Motion

The newsreel being shown at the King's Theatre in conjunction with the screening of the film, "Girl of the Golden West," depicts several scenes from the Pennsylvania Relays.

Ben Johnson, who may yet claim the title of "Fastest Human Ever" is shown sprinting to victory over Pender, of Cornell, and West, of Columbia, at 100 yards. Johnson is also shown outrunning "another famous negro sprinter, Enos Hicks, of Xavier, to win the sprint relay for Columbia University.

Dave Albritton of Ohio State is shown clearing the bar to win the high jump title at 6 feet 6 inches. He has reached 6 feet 9 inches at his best. A good slow-motion sequence of the jump is also shown.

Dick Ganslen, of Columbia, and Bill Harding, of Yale, are shown clearing 13 feet 7½ inches in the pole vault.

Long John Woodruff of Pitt is shown winning one of the classic mile relay races in track history from Jim Herbert, of N.Y.U., and Harley Howells, of Ohio State.

MR. WANG CHUNG-HUI

Hankow, July 24.

The Chinese Foreign Minister, Mr. Wang Chung-hui, accompanied by important members of the Foreign Office staff will leave for Chungking on July 30. Meanwhile, the remainder of the staff will proceed up-river by steamer.—(Reuters).
